

Sponsorship Opportunities

At Elemental Music, our mission is to inspire, train, and nurture young musicians. Since 2004, Elemental Music has provided over 1,000 students in the Santa Monica community with wonderful and engaging programs that bring young musicians together in ensemble settings. In addition to inspiring a lifelong love of music, our ensemble approach helps both students and parents become part of a larger musical community, fostering friendships that often last a lifetime.

Join us in developing the next generation of musicians and music audiences by supporting Elemental Music's annual concert series as a sponsor or advertiser.
